Filming on Location: Central Park
Chris Cousino | Associate Director, Institute for Urban Parks
Central Park Conservancy
Webinar Objectives

- Provide background and history of Central Park as a film location
- Examine the types of filming and photography in Central Park
- Detail briefly the process to film in Central Park
- Share key guidelines that encourage stewardship and care of the Park by film shoots
- Identify three critical steps to support oversight of film productions in your parks
Filming on Location: Central Park

- One of the most sought after locations in the world
- Over 200 films shot in the Park
- First film production in 1908
Filming on Location: Central Park

Types of filming:
- Film and television
- Advertising
- News
- Student/academic
- Still and commercial photography
Filming on Location: Permissions
Filming Guidelines: Locations in the Park

- Prohibited
- Restricted

[Imagery of park locations indicating prohibited and restricted areas]
Filming Guidelines: Behaviors and Practices
Filming Guidelines: Behaviors and Practices
Filming Guidelines: Trash Management

“Carry In, Carry Out”

- All production materials must be removed
- Includes trash
- Cannot use Park trash receptacles to dispose waste
Production vehicle guidelines:

- Allowed only on Center Road
- Require advanced approval and permit
- No personal vehicles
- No stopping, idling on Park drives
Building Relationships, Growing Stewards

- Communication
- Managing expectations
- Understanding of guidelines
Monitoring, Documenting, and Following Up

Take Photographs
Key Takeaways

- Communicate
- Establish Guidelines
- Monitor and Follow Up
Q & A
For more information about Institute programs, please contact:

Maura Lout, Director
mlout@centralparknyc.org

Chris Cousino, Associate Director
ccousino@centralparknyc.org

Samantha Marsden
Program Coordinator
smarsden@centralparknyc.org

Learn more at: centralparknyc.org/institute | institute@centralparknyc.org | @cpcinstitute